2nd NOVEMBER 2021

Dear Forchulah,

Thank you very much for your letter. I was going to write you on Thursday, but something very exciting happened.

On Monday night, I went to bed at the usual time, but I could not sleep. So at about two o'clock, I got up. I walked very quiet because everyone was asleep. I opened the door and went outside. The moon was full and I could see clearly in the moonlight. My dormitory is near the headmaster's house. They were all wearing masks.

One of them was asking for the mosquito wire of the window. When that was done, he opened the window. Then one of them took off his shoes and climbed into the house. A few minutes later he brought a radio and a television set to the window and the men outside took them. I had to do something. So, I walked very quietly and slowly to the back of the house. Then stood on a branch of a mango tree. Unfortunately it made a loud noise as I crashed to the ground. The men turned as quick as flash and got me.

The man with a gun ran toward me. Before I could move he caught me. He took a piece of cloth from his pocket and tied it over my mouth. The men then tied my hands together behind a tree. Then I heard a car drive off and I fell asleep. Later on I heard people shouting in the headmaster's house. Then I heard some policemen asking questions. Then I fell asleep again because I was tired. A dog that was barking very angrily woke me.

A policeman held the dog and ran towards me. That is how I was discovered. Although I was very hungry, I asked the school prefect to give the dog my food. But the policeman did not agree. He said his dog was trained to do just that! I will write and tell you more next time. Give love to your parents and all the people at home.

Best regards

MugehPascaline.
